

WANDERERS AIM TO MAKE IT 10

AFTER the disappointment of last Saturday's postponed fixture against Bromley, Wycombe Wanderers return to their Rothmans Isthmian League programme at Leytonstone tomorrow (Saturday).

Wanderers start the match with the advantage of a 5-1 home victory under their belts earlier this month. But this is matched by Leytonstone's latest victory which saw them beat Leatherhead 2-0 at Cranleigh Road. It was the Stones' first victory for some time, having lost 0-3 at home to Dulwich and 0-2 against Slough at Wokingham recently.

Hero of the night was Graham Parker. He had not played a game since Christmas due to injury and was only drafted into the side because of more injuries to other players. Parker promptly scored both goals in a 10 minute spell to clinch the points.

Although Leytonstone's form has been inconsistent this season they have recorded some impressive victories including a win over Dagenham. Bobby Page, the man who scored against Wycombe in the 5-1 defeat, is leading goalscorer with 13.

On that occasion, Page's goal made little difference to the outcome, Wycombe were already 4-0 up thanks to goals by Steve Perrin (2), Mick Holifield and Howard Kennedy. Many will remember Kennedy's 25 yard drive that left 'keeper Tony Mackie with no chance whatsoever.

A repeat of that form tomorrow would be too much for Leytonstone but conditions will be a lot different. At Loakes Park the pitch was dry and flat. At Cranleigh Road it will be slow and muddy.

Paul Birdseye, who has been out of football for a fortnight with ligament trouble is rated as doubtful for the Leytonstone trip. Dave Alexander, who has been playing in the number two shirt in recent friendlies, looks favourite to take over.

With Enfield going nine points clear of the Blues on Tuesday night after their 4-0 win at Walthamstow Avenue, three points tomorrow are a must for Wanderers, who will be aiming to take their unbeaten league record to 10 matches on the trot.
